8990 President & CEO Anthony Vincent Sotto attributed the strong results and the company's exponential growth rates in both Gross Revenues and Net Profit to the renewed confidence of Filipinos in their future revenue streams and the continued high demand for mass housing.

He also added that the easing of lockdowns contributed to the overall improvement of the business climate as COVID-19 vaccination rates go higher nationwide.

"We are hopeful that the confidence of homebuyers in our key mass housing market will grow even stronger for the rest of the year," Sotto declared.
