Clarification of News Report

We refer to your letter dated June 1, 2018 requesting Robinsons Land Corporation to clarify and/or confirm a news article entitled "Robinsons Land plans to develop dormitory, shared office spaces" which was posted in BusinessWorld Online on June 1, 2018. The article reported in part that:

"ROBINSONS Land Corp. (RLC) is planning to develop a dormitory and shared office spaces in the future, seeking to cater to those who cannot afford to buy their own properties.

The Gokongwei-led property developer said it will be building a Go Dorm in Metro Manila in the coming years, targeted toward individuals who are employed in the metro.

'It's being consistent with our goals is to provide housing for everyone. I guess we have to also accommodate those who cannot buy units but can only afford to rent,' RLC President and Chief Operating Officer Frederick D. Go told reporters after the company's annual shareholders' meeting in Ortigas late Wednesday.

The company is also planning to offer shared office spaces, with Mr. Go calling it a 'disruptor' in the office leasing sector.

The net leasable area (NLA) of RLC's office segment stood at 405,000 square meters (sq.m.) at the end of 2017. It targets to grow the area by 28% to 518,000 sq.m. this year with the opening of office towers in Exxa, Zeta, and Cyberspace Gamma in Ortigas Center.

The office segment will further grow by 18% to 613,000 sq.m. in terms of NLA by 2019, following the addition of Giga Tower, Cybergate Galleria Cebu, Cybergate Magnolia, and Delta Tower Two.

This year, RLC will start construction on two industrial warehouse facilities in Calamba, Laguna. The first of the two industrial hubs will cover around 33,000 sq.m. of leasable space.

Mr. Go said the company's residential business is doing 'extremely well,' projecting reservation sales to grow by more than 100% in the second quarter of 2018.

Meanwhile, RLC's mall segment is set to end the year with 1.508 million sq.m. in gross leasable area, following the addition of Robinsons Place in Ormoc, Pavia, Tuguegarao, and Valencia. By 2019, the opening of Robinsons Place in San Pedro and extension of Robinsons Magnolia and Robinsons Place Antipolo will bring RLC's GLA to 1.61 million sq.m.

RLC has committed to spend P22.5 billion in capital expenditures this year to support its expansion plans. It already spent P6.817 billion in the first quarter of 2018.

. . . ."

Robinsons Land Corporation hereby confirms the information quoted above that it is exploring the development of dormitory and shared office spaces. This is in line with its objective to pursue and explore opportunities for growth and diversity within the real property industry. It also confirms its operational updates as disclosed during the Annual Shareholders Meeting.
